A George III Butter Spade made in London in 1792 by Robert Hennell.

Sold

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777

REF: 374326

Description

The Butter Spade has a heart shaped blade engraved with a set of contemporary script initials. The silver section of the handle displays bi-furcated mouldings where it is attached to the blade and an elegant, slender, turned ivory handle. This piece is in quite excellent condition and is very well marked on the reverse.

Length: 8.1 inches.
Width of the blade, at the widest point: 1.8 inches.

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777