Description

The Mustard Pot is of the Drum form and the main body is pierced with bands of blue bell drops as well as sunburst motifs in roundels. The main body is also engraved with herring bone swags and stylised flower heads. The front is engraved with a contemporary Crest surrounded by an oval cartouche. The domed cover terminates in a ball finial and displays bright cut designs. The scroll handle, rim and base are all decorated with applied beading. This example is of an unusual Neo-Classical design and is in excellent condition.
