

A pair of George II Salvers made in London in 1755 by Ebenezer Coker.

Sold

REF: 96805

Diameter: 7 cm (2.8")

Description

The Salvers stand on three lion paw feet and display a shell, scroll and ropework rim. The centre is engraved with a contemporary Crest. One of the pair pictured