

A very fine George II Rococo dRINKS Salver made in London in 1746
by John Swift.

Sold

Description

The Salver stands on three substantial raying shell cast feet with leaf capped scroll legs above. The main body has a raised shaped scroll rim with cast Rococo shells attached, flanked by foliate motifs. The centre is beautifully engraved with a contemporary Armorial surrounded by a Rococo shell, scroll and floral spray cartouche. The Salver is of the finest quality, with very crisp marks on the reverse. John Swift was a very fine maker and the size of this piece lends itself to not only serving drinks, but also for a variety of uses in the dining room.

Diameter: 12.1 inches, 30.25cm.

Height: 1.75 inches, 4.38cm.

Weight: 32oz.