

NEWCASTLE. A very rare George II "Dolphin" Creamboat. Made in Newcastle circa 1750 by Issac Cookson.

Sold

REF: 375481

Description

This very rare Creamboat stands on three paw feet which are attached to the main body with detailed lion mask mouldings. The main body is plain in design, with a slightly baluster form and finely shaped edge.

The handle is modelled as a very detailed dolphin which was a design peculiar to Newcastle at this date, and examples very seldom come onto the market. This piece is in excellent condition, is well marked, has a good colour and is of an excellent gauge of silver. A desirable piece of English Provincial silver. Length: 5.75 inches, 14.38 cm. Width: 2.95 inches, 7.38 cm. Height, tot he top of the handle: 3.75 inches, 9.38 cm
