Description

The Mustard is modelled in the Drum form and displays an applied beaded band at the base. The sides are beautifully pierced with an upper band of flower heads in roundels, above vertical pails and wheel motifs. The sides are also engraved with bright cut and prick dot bands, as well as laurel leaf garlands. The cover is engraved with an outer bright cut band and has a pierced fan shaped thumb piece. The Mustard Pot is in quite excellent condition and is fully marked on the base and with the makers mark and sterling mark on the cover.
