

A fine George III Reeded Tankard made in London in 1780 by John Robins.

Sold

REF: 175982

Description

The Tankard is of slightly tapering form and the sides are decorated with two wide bands of reeding. The hinged cover comes to a point at the front and is engraved with an outer bright cut border. This piece has a plain scroll handle and is engraved on the cover and main body with a contemporary Crest. The Tankard is in excellent condition and is fully marked on both the cover and the base.

Height: 6 inches, 15cm.

Base Diameter: 4.45 inches, 11.13cm.

Weight: 29oz.