

A George III Mustard Pot made in London in 1785 by Thomas Daniell.

Sold

REF: 192795

Description

The Mustard Pot is of the Drum form and the main body is engraved with bright cut bands, floral garlands and a vacant navette shaped cartouche with tied ribbons above. The domed cover displays a bright cut edge and floral spray on the top of the dome. This piece has a scroll handle and cast chair back thumb piece. The Mustard Pot has a blue glass liner and is fully marked on the foot and with the makers mark and sterling mark on the cover.

Height: 3 inches.

Diameter: 2.45 inches.