

A George III Tankard made in London in 1790 by John Denziloe

Sold

REF: 120721

Description

The Tankard has slightly tapering sides which are decorated with two wide reeded bands. This example has a plain leaf capped handle and cover and pierced thumb piece. The interior is palely gilded. The size of this piece leads us to conclude that it was either for the use of a Lady or young Gentleman.

Height: 5.5 inches.

Base Diameter: 3.5 inches

Weight: 18oz
