

A rare George III Telescopic Toasting Fork made in London in 1809 by Thomas Dix.

Sold

REF: 135324

Description

This rare Toasting Fork has three tines and is of the unusual telescopic form which slides back into the leather covered section. The end is fitted with a suspensory ring, so that it can be hung up when not in use.

Length fully extended: 27 inches.