

A rare pair of George III Baskets made in London in 1793 by William Plummer.

Sold

Description

This rare pair of Baskets which were almost certainly used for Sugar and Cream stand on a shaped pedestal foot decorated with reeding. The main body displays unusual shaped panelled sides and an everted shaped rim decorated with reeding. The interior of each basket is engraved with a band of pluming scrolls and flower heads on a scratch engraved ground. The interiors are finely gilded and the exterior is engraved with the contemporary Crest of a Martin and the script initials EM.

Height of Baskets: 3.25 & 4 inches respectively.

Length of Baskets: 5.5 & 7 inches respectively

Width of Baskets: 4.75 & 3.75 inches respectively

Total Weight: 15oz