A very fine oval bright cut Nutmeg Grater made in London in 1809 by Thomas Phipps & Edward Robinson.

£1,650

REF: 375146

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777

Description

The Nutmeg Grater is modelled in the oval form and the sides and base are decorated with crisp bright cut bands. The hinged cover displays a vacant cut cornered cartouche surrounded by floral garlands. This piece is in excellent condition and is very well marked on the cover and on the base. Phipps & Robinson were premier box makers and their work is much sought after. Similar examples are seen on the attached extract from "Nutmeg Graters, Pommanders and Spice Boxes." page 57.Length: 2 inches.Width: 1.15 inches.Height: 0.95 inches.MARKS : Fully marked in the cover and with the maker's mark and sterling mark on the base. Also with an additional maker's mark on the side.

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777