

A very fine pair of George III Sauce Ladles made in London by Walter Tweedie in 1774

£550

REF: 375405

Description

The Ladles have deep fluted shell bowls and Old English Stems, with a feather edge border. The top of the stem is engraved with a contemporary Crest and the reverse displays a full set of good hallmarks at the bottom of the stem. Both pieces are in excellent condition.Length: 7 inches, 17.5 cm.Diameter of the bowl: 2.15 inches, 5.38 cm