A very fine pair of George IV Serving Tongs made in London in 1823 by William Knight.

£1,250

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777

REF: 375259

Description

These quality Tongs are modelled in the Fiddle and Thread pattern and display wide grips pierced with scrolls, stars and teardrop motifs, all surrounded by a linear engraved frame. The arch of the arms is engraved with a contemporary Crest and the tongs are very well marked. William Knight was an excellent maker of serving pieces, and slices, during the Georgian period.Length: 9.75 inches, 24.38 cm.Width of the grips: 1.6 inches, 4cm.Weight: 7oz.

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777