

An exceptional pair of George III Drinking Goblets made in London in 1807 by Thomas James.

£4,500

Description

These exceptional Wine Goblets stand on a square pedestal foot decorated with circular reeding and an eclectic mix of bright cut and prick dot designs. The foot rises to a vase shaped bowl, with beautiful rim engraved with bright cut designs, including stylised foliate motifs and wriggle work bands. The front of the bowl is engraved with an unusual contemporary Crest, which our heraldic advisor is currently trying to trace. The interior is finely gilded and the foot displays a very crisp set of hallmarks. This type of goblet is lovely to drink from and both are in exceptionally crisp condition.

Height: 6.7 inches, 16.75cm.

Diameter of the bowl: 3.5 inches, 8.75cm.

Weight: 20oz, the pair.
