

A fine novelty "Barrel" Pepper made in London in 1849 by Charles & George Fox.

Sold

REF: 182406

Description

The Pepper is finely modelled as a barrel with a detachable cover pierced with scroll work and a central flower head. The side is engraved with a contemporary Scottish Crest with the Motto Corde et Manu - With heart and hand above. The interior displays fine original gilding.

Height: 2 inches, 5cm.

Diameter: 1.5 inches, 3.75cm.