

A rare George III Caddy Spoon, Joseph Taylor, Birmingham, 1797

Sold

REF: 108934

Description

The Caddy Spoon is finely modelled as a Jockey Cap. The spoon is engraved with bright cut and prick dot bands to simulate the material of the cap and the ribbons at the rear. It is very desirable to find an 18th century example of this design.