A very rare George III Caddy Spoon made in Birmingham circa 1800 by Samuel Pemberton

£695

REF: 375812

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777

Description

This very rare Georgian Caddy Spoon is modelled as a stylised frying pan. The circular bowl displays plain, stepped, sides and the centre is decorated with a raying floral rosette. The tapering handle is decorated with a foliate design, on a linear ground, and has a plain trefoil device above. This is the first time we have seen this specific design and the reverse is very well marked with the maker's mark of Samuel PembertonLength: 2.45 inches, 6.13 cm.Diameter of the bowl: 1.3 inches, 3.25 cm.

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777