A very fine George IV Pocket Nutmeg Grater made in London in 1828 by Charles Rawlings.

£1,650

REF: 375028

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777

Description

This very fine Box is modelled in an unusual deep square form.  The cover is engraved with prick dot roundels around a vacant rectangular cartouche. The sides are engraved with horizontal prick dot and wriggle work bands and the base has a hinged opening decorated with a central flower head, surrounded by prick dot and wriggle work frames.  This piece is very well marked,  displays its original steel grater and has a serpentine shaped thumb piece.  Charles Rawlings was an exceptional box maker and this is seen with this nutmeg grater.Length: 1 inch.Width: 0.9 inches.Height: 0.9 inches.

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777