

A George III Toilet Box made in Edinburgh circa 1815 by John McKay.

Sold

REF: 175894

Description

The Box is plain in design and circular in form, with a pull off cover engraved with a contemporary Crest surrounded by a garter cartouche engraved with the Motto Spare Nought The Crest and Motto are those of the Baird-Hay family of Belton, Haddington, Scotland.

Height: 0.9 inches.

Diameter: 1.5 inches.