

PRIVATE DIE. A rare George IV Sauce Ladle made in Glasgow in 1828 by Robert Gray & Son.

Sold

REF: 199891

Description

The Ladle is of a very good gauge, with circular bowl, and is modelled in the Fiddle and Thread pattern, which is double struck. The top of the front of the stem displays a cast Mermaid family Crest, with foliate scroll work below.

Length: 7.45 inches, 18.63cm.