A pair of Cream Ladles made in London in 1841 by William Eaton

Sold

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777

REF: 120494

Description

The Cream Ladles are made in the Albert Pattern and have double struck stems which are engraved at the top with a set of contemporary script initials. The deep circular bowls are finely gilded.

Length: 4.9 inches

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777