

A pair of Cream Ladles made in London in 1841 by William Eaton

Sold

REF: 120494

Description

The Cream Ladles are made in the Albert Pattern and have double struck stems which are engraved at the top with a set of contemporary script initials. The deep circular bowls are finely gilded.

Length: 4.9 inches