

A pair of George IV Sauce Ladles made in London in 1823 by Eley & Fearn

Sold

REF: 120512

Description

The Ladles were made by William Eley & William Fearn in the rare Old English Shell Pattern and have deep circular bowls. The ladles are of a very good gauge and are engraved on the reverse of the stem with a set of contemporary script initials.

Length: 7 inches