

A George III Vinaigrette made in London in 1819 by Thomas Edwards.

Sold

REF: 199910

Description

The Vinaigrette is of rectangular form and is engraved on the cover with a sunburst motif around a central cartouche. The sides are decorated with prick dot bands and the base with foliate motifs. The interior displays an unusual trellis work grille.

Length: 1 inch, 2.5cm