

A very rare Neck Ring Wine Label made in London by Robert Hennell in 1878.

Sold

REF: 163167

Description

The Label is of broad rectangular form with a domed section above, all decorated with gadrooned borders. The label is pierced for MANZANILLA with a contemporary Crest engraved above. Manzanilla is a variety of fino sherry made around the port of Sanlucar de Barrameda in the province of Cadiz, Andalusia, Spain.

Length: 2.25 inches, 5.7cm.