

A pair of George II Hanoverian pattern Sauce Ladles made in London in 1751 by George Morris.

Sold

REF: 199890

Description

The Sauce Ladles are made in the Hanoverian Pattern and display circular bowls. Both display good bottom hallmarks and are engraved at the top of the stem with contemporary Crests.

Length: 6.5 inches.