MARY COOKE ANTIQUES LTD Fine Antique Silver

A rare pair of George II Hanoverian pattern Sauce Ladles made in London in 1751 by George Morris.

Sold

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd 12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN +44 (0)20 8876 5777 REF: 374254

Description

These rare ladles are modelled in the Hanoverian pattern, with large round bowls. The top of each stem is engraved with an unusual contemporary Crest and display a very good set of hallmarks at the bottom of the stem. Hanoverian pattern sauce ladles are very scarce and seldom come up for sale. They are both in excellent condition, are of a good gauge and have a fine colour.

Length: 6.5 inches, 16.25cm Diameter of the bowl: 2 inches, 5cm