

A very fine set of four George II Spool Salt Cellars made in London in 1756 by David Hennell I.

Sold

Description

Each Cellar stands on a spreading circular foot decorated with reeding and two bands of cording. The deep circular main body rises to a reed and corded rim and the underside is very unusually engraved with lobed and arrow head designs. Each is also engraved with a contemporary Crest, above a coronet. The interiors display deep original gilding and the feet are unusually engraved with numbers 1 to 4. Each is engraved with their original scratch weight. The underside displays a crisp set of hallmarks and the distinctive Gothic maker's mark of David Hennell I, registered in 1739. Height: 2 inches. Diameter at the rim: 3.5 inches. Weight: 27oz, the set.