An unusually large William II Patch Box made in London circa 1697 by William Middleton.

£1,750

REF: 375825

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777

Description

The Box is of circular form and of an unusually large size. This piece has a plain design and the pull-off cover is beautifully engraved with a Tudor Rose motif. The box has a lovely colour and is marked with the maker’s mark in the base. He entered his mark as a large worker between April and December 1700 with workshops in Leadenhall Street. He was here 1697-1705, so had a brief working life. The box is in excellent condition.Height: 0.65 inches, 1.63 cm.Diameter: 1.85 inches, 4.63 cm.

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777