

QUEEN ANNE. A fine Britannia Standard Dognose Spoon made in London in 1702 by Edward Gibson.

Sold

REF: 163180

Description

This example is of the Dognose form with a plain rat tail on the reverse of the bowl and an unusually wide dognose end which is engraved with a set of contemporary initials. This example has a good bowl and is very well marked.

Length: 8 inches, 20cm.