

A fine George III Mustard Pot made in London in 1805 by John Emes.

Sold

REF: 182531

Description

The Mustard Pot is of the drum form and displays an upper and lower band of Greek Key decoration. The hinged cover has a reeded edge and oval thumb piece. This example is well marked and has a harp shaped handle.

Height: 3 inches, 7.5cm

Diameter: 2.25 inches, 5.63cm