A fine George III Pap Boat made in London in 1812 by Crispin Fuller.

£650

REF: 375375

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777

Description

The Pap Boat is of typical rectangular form, with pronounced spout and everted rim which is decorated with pretty entwined bands and roundels. The end displays a double raying shell flanked by acanthus leaves. The Pap boat is in excellent condition, is well marked and displays original gilding on the interior. Crispin Fuller made fine pieces from workshops at 3, Windsor Court, Monkwell Street, when this piece was made.Length: 5.25 inches, 13.13 cm.Width: 3 inches, 7.5 icm.Height: 1.25 inches, 3.13 cm.

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777