

A George III Mustard Pot made in London in 1782 by Thomas Daniel & John Wall.

Sold

REF: 192835

Description

The Mustard Pot is of the Drum form with a beaded rim. The main body is pierced with two bands of vitruvian scrolls, as well as Neo-Classical urns in ovals. The sides are also engraved with floral and foliate garlands. The cover is engraved with a bright cut border and a central contemporary Crest. This piece has a scroll handle and chair back thumb piece.

Height: 2.5 inches, 6.25cm

Diameter: 2.25 inches, 5.63cm