

A George IV Butter Dish made in London by Samuel Dutton in 1827

Sold

REF: 120724

Description

The Dish is circular in form with a stepped rim decorated with a gadrooned band. The border is engraved with a contemporary Crest. The design and size of this piece lends itself to a variety of uses on the dining table.

Diameter: 7 inches

Weight: 10oz