A set of six early George III Hanoverian Dessert Spoons made in London in 1768 by Thomas & William Chawner.

Sold

REF: 375333

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777

Description

The Spoons are made in the Hanoverian Pattern and are bottom marked.  The top of each stem is engraved with a contemporary Crest.  Thomas and William Chawner were fine flatware makers during this period.Length: 6.45 inches, 16.13 cm

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777