A very rare, and unusual, George III oversized Spice Sifter made in London in 1798 by William Eley & William Fearn.

£525

REF: 375435

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777

Description

The Spice Sifter is of a very unusual long size and may well have been an apprentice piece. It is modelled in the fiddle and thread pattern, which is double struck, and the circular bowl is pierced with plain roundels. The top of the stem is engraved with a contemporary Crest and the reverse displays a crisp set of hallmarks. This piece is in excellent condition and is of a size which is rarely seen.Length: 7.5 inches, 18.75 cm.Diameter of the bowl: 1.25 inches, 3.13 cm.

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777