

A very rare "Concertina" Toast Rack made in Sheffield by Samuel Roberts & Company in 1818.

Sold

Description

The Toast Rack is of the rare Concertina design and can extend to various sizes. This example stands on four ball feet and has a plain double arch design. It displays a raised central circular carrying handle. The base is engraved with R.C. & Co Patent. It can fold away for ease of storage, possibly while travelling.

Height: 5 inches, 12.5cm.

Length, fully extended: 17 inches, 42.5cm

Weight: 7oz.