

A very unusual George III Hollands Label made in London in 1800 by George Smith.

£650

REF: 375673

Description

This rare label is modelled in a stylised escutcheon form, with bright cut border. The upper section of the label is pierced with a band of arrowheads, surrounded by prick dot designs. The front is engraved with HOLLANDS. The label is modelled in a design which we had not seen before and is in excellent condition, with a crisp set of marks on the reverse. Length: 4 inches, Width: 0.9 inches.