

An extremely rare Filigree Case modelled as a book and made, most probably in London, circa 1760.

Sold

Description

This beautiful case is modelled as a book with divided spine and two filigree fastening clasps and was probably used to contain a precious paper book or aide memoire. The centre of the front and the back displays a central raised raying flower head and unusual tr-furcated motifs in each corner. This piece is in quite excellent condition and the quality of the filigree modelling is exceptional.Length: 2.9 inches.Width: 1.85 inches.Height: 0.45 inches.