

An unusual set of four George III Silver Gilt Dishes

Sold

REF: 136617

Diameter: 4 cm (1.6")

Description

The Dishes are silver gilt and circular in form with a gadrooned rim. Each is well marked and engraved with a set of contemporary initials. The dishes were all made in London, three in 1804 by Robert & Samuel Hennell and 1 in 1809 by Solomon Hougham. All are identical in size and design.