

CHESTER. A very rare George III Drinking Mug made in London in 1776 by Richard Richardson III.

Sold

REF: 192844

Description

The Mug is plain in design and is of the slightly bellied Can form, which was peculiar to Chester. This piece has a plain scroll handle and gilded interior. The Mug is in excellent condition and shows no sign of erasure. It is very well marked on the base and is of a very good gauge.

Height: 2.85 inches, 7.13cm

Diameter: 2.1 inches, 5.25cm

Weight: 3.5oz.