

EDINBURGH. A rare George III Campaign Beaker or Field Cup made in Edinburgh in 1783 by James Gilsland.

Sold

REF: 204973

Description

The Beaker is of an unusual form and displays an everted rim. The front is engraved with a navette shaped bright cut cartouche containing an unusual contemporary Scottish Crest with the motto Sursum - Upward above. The reverse is also engraved with a contemporary Crest. The beaker is of a very good gauge and is very well marked on the base.

Height: 2.9 inches, 7.25cm

Diameter at the rim: 3 inches, 7.5cm.

Weight: 5.5 oz.