

A rare George III Tortoiseshell Pique Caddy Spoon made Circa 1790

Sold

REF: 153279

Description

The Caddy Spoon, which was most probably made in London, has an elongated shell bowl which displays silver stud work in the centre. The top of the stem displays a silver star motif which is engraved with a contemporary script initial.

Length: 3.1 inches.