

A George III Sugar Sifter made in London in 1798 by Eley & Fearn

Sold

REF: 120510

Description

The Sugar Sifter was made by William Eley & William Fearn and has a circular bowl pierced with roundels, crosses and an outer band of scroll work. The Old English Pattern stem is engraved with a contemporary script initial.

Length: 6.25 inches