A George IV Hourglass Pattern Serving Spoon made in London in 1825 by Charles Eley.

Sold

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777

REF: 174725

Description

The Spoon is modelled in the Hourglass pattern and is double struck, with the pattern on both the front and reverse of the stem. The elongated bowl is fluted and displays a shell motif on the reverse. The top of the stem is engraved with a contemporary Crest.

Length: 9.5 inches, 23.75 cm.

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd
12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN
+44 (0)20 8876 5777