

A pair of George III cast Sugar Tongs made in London circa 1770 by William Harrison

Sold

REF: 135273

Description

The arms of the Tongs are most unusually pierced with scroll work and quatrefoil motifs. They also display shell grips and the arched top is engraved with a feather edge border, floral motifs and a set of contemporary initials.

Length: 5.45 inches