

An unusual George III Serving Slice made in London in 1809 by Thomas James

Sold

REF: 135372

Description

The Slice has a Fiddle Pattern handle engraved with contemporary initials. The blade, however, is shaped and engraved to simulate an acorn with outer reeded rim and central pierced section.

Length: 11.75 inches.