

An unusual pair of George IV Sugar Nips made in Birmingham circa 1825 by Joseph Willmore.

Sold

REF: 199900

Description

The Nips are of an unusual small size and are decorated with naturalistic motifs. The finger rings and arms are decorated with foliate motifs and also display a central flower head boss. The cast grips are decorated with acanthus leaves. Marked on the inside of the grips.

Length: 3.5 inches, 8.75cm