MARY COOKE ANTIQUES LTD Fine Antique Silver

An unusual pair of George IV Sugar Nips made in Birmingham circa 1825 by Joseph Willmore.

Sold

Mary Cooke Antiques Ltd 12 The Old Power Station, 121 Mortlake High Street, London, SW14 8SN +44 (0)20 8876 5777 REF: 199900

Description

The Nips are of an unusual small size and are decorated with naturalistic motifs. The finger rings and arms are decorated with foliate motifs and also display a central flower head boss. The cast grips are decorated with acanthus leaves. Marked on the inside of the grips.

Length: 3.5 inches, 8.75cm